Will Serve Willingly As a Private.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 5.—William Jennings Bryan Thursday last issued the following statement:

"The election has gone against us by a decisive majority. The returns are not all in and it is impossible at the present time to analyze them or to say what causes contributed most to the Republican victory.

"We made our fight upon a platform which embodied what we believe to be good for the American people, but it is for the people themselves to decide what laws they desire and what methods of government they prefer.

"I have faith that the publicity for which we asked will yet commend itself to the American people; that the election of Senators by the people will be secured; that the iniquities of the trusts will arouse an opposition that will result in the elimination of the principle of private monopoly.

"I am confident that the people will see the necessity for labor legislation and the tariff reduction which our platform demanded. I am confident, too, that the educational work done in this campaign will result in securing greater protection to bank depositors.

"The above are the most important reforms for which we labored, and I believe that these reforms will yet come, together with more effective regulation of railroad and independence for the Philippines.

"I desire to commend the work of our National Committee. I am entirely satisfied with Mr. Mack as the chairman, and with the members of the committee. I do not see what they could have done more than they did, and as for myself, I put forth every effort in my power to secure victory for our cause.

"The nomination came from the hands of the voters. I have obeyed their command and have led as best I could. Words will not express my gratitude for the devotion which has been shown by millions of Democrats during the last 12 years.

"Neither can I adequately express my appreciation for the kind words which have been spoken since the election. If I could regard the defeat as purely a personal one, I would consider it a blessing rather than a misfortune, for I am relieved of the burdens and responsibilities of an office that is attractive only in proportion as it gives an opportunity to render a larger public service.

"But I shall serve as willingly in a private capacity as in a public one. God does not require great things of us. He only requires that we improve the opportunities for service presented, and I shall be glad to improve the opportunities for service presented by private life.

"In this hour of national defeat I find some consolation in the cordial support given by my neighbors, by the citizens of Lincoln and by the people of the State of Nebraska. With a Democratic Governor and a Democratic Legislature we shall be able to put into practice so much of the Denver platform as relates to State legislation, and I trust that our State will set an example that will be an influence for good in the nation."

HUBBLE.

Jas. A. Bratton, Sr., our beloved friend and good citizen, at the age of 65 years, passed out of this life into the great beyond Saturday morning between 4 and 5 o'clock, Nov. 7. He was one of the few old Confederate soldiers now living and had been declining very rapidly for the last few months, but on account of his great energy and wonderful nerve he kept going till the last. He went to the election and voted for W. J. Bryan and the remainder of the ticket, visited his son near Marksburg, and came home on the evening of the 6th where he had been living for several years with his son, R. G. Bratton, who is one of the good citizens of this community. He was alive at 4 o'clock the morning of his death and asked the family if it was cloudy. After the early morning work was done and breakfast ready, he was called as usual, but did not respond. He had been suffering for some time with nervous trouble, but was not able to rally from his last attack. He was brave, courageous, kind hearted, always speaking and contenting for what he thought was right. He leaves three children, R. G. Bratton, of this community, Jas. A. Bratton, of Marksburg, and Mrs. Susie Melghan, of Louisville, to mourn his departure, and a host of friends to sympathize with them and miss him in this life. At two o'clock Sunday afternoon, after being followed by many friends and met by a host of others in the Lancaster cemetery, after appropriate services by Rev. Brown, in which the few old soldiers took part, his body was consigned to its last resting place.

An Old Democrat Talks About Old Times.

My mind drifts back to by-gone days. Well do I remember the election of 1876. I was at Albany, Ga. When the news came that the great ticket of Tilden and Hendricks had been elected, our people went wild, for it was the first time that the people of the South had seen the sun shine politically since the great Robert E. Lee had turned his sword over to Grant and Johnson had turned his over to Sherman. Two of the greatest commanders the world had ever known had to go down in defeat. The old party had to pick its flint and try it over. Let every county and district put up its ablest and best men. Well do I remember after Mr. Clay's death the old Whig party was led by Crittenden, Bell, Hardin, Dunlap and Davis. The old democratic party was led by Breckinridge, Stevenson, Powell, Magoffin and Beck; all of these were great and mighty men, able to cope with any men from any State. Old Kentucky still has some fine men of the old school. We have Lindsay, McCreary, Breckinridge and that able jurist, Judge Saufley, all able, true and tried men as ever went on a battle field. Of our younger men we have John R. Allen, Harvey Helm, W. J. Price and many others. Let these men come to the front.

I remember in 1868, the carpet bag days, of seeing a full Legislature in Tallahassee, Fla., of Negroes, and in 1876 of seeing two Legislatures in New Orleans, one white and the other Negroes. I was in Atlanta shortly after the war and saw that city in ruins and ashes that Sherman had burned and left for women and children to weep over. I have traveled through every Southern State since the war and God in heaven only knows what those brave people have suffered. Let the old party be true to its principles and put up its very best men for office as it has in by-gone days. You will see the old party come to the front once more. You now have a fine young man in the Legislature. Keep him there. Boyle county once sent such men as Anderson, Talbot, Bell, Hoskins and others. Fayette sent her Clays, Breckinridges, Hunt and others, all great men. Lincoln had her Baileys, Varnon, Owsley and others, and old Garrard had her Dunlap, Burdett and others. Old Madison had her Turner, McCreary, Smith Little and others. These were all able, true and tried men and could serve their country in any capacity. Now let us put up our best men in every county and district and victory will waive on our banner once more. If not, we will go down in defeat as we did a year ago. I would like to see Judge Saufley go to the U. S. Senate. His term in office would about round out the old Confederate soldier's career.

Ask Bob Porter if he remembers the skirmish Scott's Confederate Cavalry had in front of his house in '61 and how I had to lay in the fence corner with Mr. Dillehay to keep from being killed.

I guess every one remembers Pegram's raid in the winter of '63, when he burned the old bridge at Dix river, where Benzley was murdered.

BRECKINRIDGE DEMOCRAT.

When asked if he would request a requisition for Taylor and Finley in case Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin demanded it, now that Governor Marshall, Democrat, is elected, Gov. Willson replied: "We will take up the Taylor and Finley matter in regular order of business, and consider those cases just like we would any other cases. Further than this I do not care to make a statement."

Charles W. Morse was sentenced to serve 15 years in the Atlanta penitentiary. Judge Hough, in the Federal Court at New York, acted on the jury's recommendation in Alfred H. Curtis' case, and suspended sentence. Morse has not given up, but from his cell in the Tombs has directed his attorneys to fight to the bitter end. An appeal will be taken.

Watched Fifteen years.

"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve; and it has never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill," says A. F. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine. 25c. at Penny's Drug Store.

Brent Woodall, of Covington, secretary of the University of Cincinnati, and nephew of Dr. C. W. Dabney, head of that institution, has disappeared from his home. When last heard from, a week ago, he was in Louisville, but his father, Frank F. Woodall, and a detective, were unable to find a trace of him there.

Republican and Socialist delegates to the American Federation of Labor meeting at Denver are expected to criticize adversely the course of Samuel Gompers and the executive board in the recent campaign, but it is not believed that they will be able to muster enough strength to prevent a decisive vote in favor of a continued vigorous political policy.

Charles W. Morse and Alfred H. Curtis were found guilty by a jury in the United States Circuit Court in New York City of falsifying the books of the National Bank of North America and of misapplication of the funds of the bank. The verdict covers a total of 51 counts. The jury in returning its verdict recommended Curtis to the mercy of the court, in view of the assistance given by him to the District Attorney and the fact that he was generally believed to have been influenced by Morse.

"I have had seven years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine to take for coughs and colds and for every diseased condition of throat, chest or lungs," says W. V. Its timely use always prevents the development of pneumonia sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store, 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

Much interest is being manifested in the meeting conducted at the Christian church by Rev. E. J. Willis, of Kirksville, Mo., assisted by the local pastor, Rev. W. S. Willis. There have been 11 additions to date. The music is an attractive feature of the services, especially the duets by Misses Saltee and Warriner and the quartette renditions by Messrs. Dinwiddie, Adams, Camnitz and Williams.

The Hallo'en Party given by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Neal in honor of their son, William, was unique and greatly enjoyed by the guests. Many of the make ups showed a close study of Hamlet's ghost. The refreshments were greatly enjoyed and the menu could not have been exceeded by a royal chef.

THE announcement from Washington that Frank Hitchcock would be the official dispenser of patronage under the Taft Administration is cheering news to many of the postmasters and other Federal officeholders in Kentucky. It is natural that Senator-elect W. O. Bradley will also have much to do with the patronage in Kentucky. Senator Bradley was named the leader in this State when he held his conference with Judge Taft some months ago. Senator Bradley has been a factor since the national convention, when he and Hitchcock and Fischer put the skids under R. P. Ernst, who had an ambition to be national committeeman from Kentucky.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL, we expect, is the only paper in the United States which has never printed a picture of President-Elect Taft. It has also never printed President Roosevelt's picture and only about twice has Mr. Bryan's face appeared in its columns. The I. J. is not averse to printing pictures but believes that its patrons had rather have good reading matter than have their home paper filled with stock cuts they have seen hundreds of times in other publications.

CHAIRMAN STOKES JACKSON, of the Indiana Democratic Committee, announced that he will contest the election of any of the Republican State ticket should the official returns now being compiled at the Secretary of State's office show any of them to have been successful. The contest will be based on alleged naturalization frauds in Lake county and other illegal methods alleged to have been used by the Republicans.

OUR old friend Judge R. G. Williams, formerly of Mt. Vernon, was elected Commonwealth's Attorney of the Kenton district by a majority of 2,600. The State's affairs in that county will be in safe hands as soon as Judge Williams takes his oath of office and the law-breaker had better either quit his meanness or hunt a more congenial clime.

THE Goebel Monument and Building Commission met at Frankfort Saturday and adopted a resolution accepting the statue and monument, and fixing the month of May for the dedication and unveiling ceremonies. The commission will meet again in March to fix the exact day in May for the unveiling.

THERE seems to have been some lively swapping off in Louisville. Sherley, for Congress, carried the Fifth district by 2,435 and Bryan lost it by 938. Indiana, Ohio and New York are not the only States where the great commoner was robbed in order that some local man should get into office.

JOHN W. KERN, of Indianapolis, has made formal announcement of his candidacy for United States Senator. We hope he will win and predict that he will.

POLITICAL.

John Dismuke has been appointed postmaster at Buena Vista, Garrard county.

Judge Taft, it is said in Washington, will avoid as much as possible the worry incident to the distribution of patronage and will rely largely on Hitchcock's judgment in making his appointments.

The Indiana Legislature will be Democratic by 12 on joint ballot and will elect a Democrat to the United States Senate.

L. P. Fryer, present incumbent, defeated J. J. Osborne for the Democratic nomination for circuit judge in the Cynthiana district.

Robert L. Offutt, of Shelby county, in the Eighth district, is a candidate for messenger to carry Kentucky's electoral vote to Washington.

United States Senator Francis G. Newlands, Democrat of Nevada, has been re-elected by popular vote by a majority of between 2,000 and 3,000.

Many of the politicians in Washington believe it is not improbable that President Roosevelt will be elected to the Senate from New York to succeed Senator Platt.

Taft carried his home State by over 70,000, at the same time that the Democrats elected Judge Harmon to be Chief Executive of the State by 20,000 plurality.

On the face of the official returns in Indiana, the Republicans win all the State offices below Governor, except two. Democrats claim they have evidence to show where grave frauds have been committed.

Democracy is gaining even in Pennsylvania. Roosevelt carried it four years ago by 503,000. Taft carried it this time by less than 400,000. Sixteen years from now at this rate the Democrats may carry it.

Charles P. Taft is mentioned as a candidate for Senator from Ohio. Foraker will cut little figure in the fight, it is believed, and Representative Burton is now thought to be the strongest of any of the possibilities.

Senator Beveridge is expected to become the undisputed leader of the Republican party in Indiana, and as the only Republican Senator from the State will have an opportunity to build up a machine through his patronage.

Several commercial bodies of Southern cities have extended invitations to Judge Taft to spend the winter in their cities. Mobile has placed a suite of rooms in its new hotel at his disposal and Atlanta wishes him to attend a banquet.

Otto G. Foelker, the State Senator who arose from a sick bed to go to Albany last spring and cast the deciding ballot which made possible the passage of Gov. Hughes' anti-race track betting laws, was elected to Congress from the Third district (Brooklyn), as a Republican.

Chairman Boeschenstein, of the Democratic State Committee in Illinois, announced that the election of Gov. Deneen, who wins on the face of the returns by something like 24,000, would be contested by the Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson. Many errors are said to have been discovered in the returns.

In the Democratic primary in the Twelfth judicial district, composed of the counties of Shelby, Spencer, Anderson, Henry, Oldham and Trimble, held Saturday, Charles H. Sandford, of Henry county, defeated Judge Edwin H. Davis, of Shelby county, for Commonwealth's Attorney, by a majority of nearly 1,000.

President Roosevelt is engaged in preparing his last regular message to Congress. It is expected that his most earnest recommendations will be for amendments to the Sherman anti-trust act, an increase in the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission and a greater navy. The tariff question, it is believed, he will leave for his successor.

A Frankfort dispatch says: From a well-known politician who was here today it is learned that there is strong probability of Senator James B. McCreary being a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Thos. H. Paynter, and the man who started the Senator McCreary boom says that he is certain to be elected by the Legislature which meets in 1911.

The Focus, devoted to politics and society largely, will make its appearance in Louisville Saturday, and be edited by Denny B. Goode, well known in Louisville newspaper circles. James R. Kellar will conduct the society end of the paper. Jack J. McGrath and several other well-known local writers will be connected with the paper. It will be nonpartisan in politics.

At the beginning of the campaign Thomas R. Marshall, Governor-elect of Indiana, made the statement that he would accept no contributions in financing his political contest. In spite of this letters containing money were frequently received, the total amount being about $3,000. Mr. Marshall has accepted none of this money and he is now engaged in returning the contributions, says a dispatch.

The following is the probable alignment of the initial cabinet of William Howard Taft: Secretary of State—Elihu Root, of New York. Secretary of the Treasury—George Von Lengerke Meyer, of Massachusetts. Secretary of War—Luko Wright of Tennessee. Attorney General—Frank B. Kellogg, of Minnesota. Postmaster General—Frank H. Hitchcock, of Massachusetts. Secretary of the Navy—William Loeh, Jr., of New York. Secretary of the Interior—James Rudolph Garfield, of Ohio. Secretary of Agriculture—James Wilson, of Iowa. Secretary of Commerce and Labor—Oscar S. Straus, of New York.

James M. Stapp has been appointed postmaster at Newby, Madison county.

The passage of the Hart-Agnew bill, which has broken up racing in New York, has caused James B. Haggin, the New York millionaire who owns the great Elmendorf Stock Farm in Fayette and who has been for many years the most liberal and persistent buyer of land in that county, to now become a land seller instead of a buyer, and a portion of his immediate holdings are for sale.

A district Sunday School Convention will be held at Crab Orchard on Nov. 21 at 2 P. M., for the purpose of organizing a district convention. Revs. Yandell and Taylor, of this place, are down for talks on the program.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local treatment. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, blood and muscle elements. The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, helps local weakness and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, brings back the lost strength, and brings back strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

WITH the exception of Mercer and Franklin counties, Lincoln county has the worst court house in the State. It is pleasing, therefore to a long time resident to note that the proposition to spend $35,000 in improving the building carried by a good majority. For years the old shack has been in a dangerous condition and unfit for the habitation of any one.

A RICHMOND dispatch says: Three dozen candidates for county offices, before next Saturday's Democratic primary, lined up and took a solemn oath to refrain from the use of whisky, money or other illegal influence to gain votes in their respective races. WHITE.—Francis, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. White, of Dallas, Texas, is dead of diphtheria. He was an exceedingly handsome, bright little fellow. Mr. White and family moved from Lincoln to Texas several years ago. Mrs. White is a daughter of Mr. Josiah Bishop, of Hustonville.

BRYAN and Kern's majority in Lincoln county is 143 and Messrs. J. M. Alverson, of this office, and Miller Hill, son of Sheriff T. J. Hill, will get the $10 offered by this paper for the person or persons guessing their majority or nearest to it. Each of these gentlemen guessed 143 and hence they will receive $5 each. The result was obtained by adding the votes the electors on the democratic ticket received and the votes received by the republican electors, dividing each by 13, as there are 13 electors, and deducting the republican minority from the democratic majority. For instance the democratic electors received 25,713 votes and the republicans 23,870. Divide the democratic vote by 13 and you have 1977 and a fraction. Divide the republican vote by 13 and you have 1834 and a fraction. Deduct 1834 from 1977 and the result is 143.

Attorney William Roberts and Circuit Clerk R. G. Price have inaugurated a movement looking to the location of W. J. Bryan in Danville. The movement will be given statewide publicity and an effort will be made to effect such a strong organization and offer the peerless leader such a pressing invitation that he will not hesitate to come. After he is here, the purpose is to run him for United States Senator so that he can wield his mighty influence in the halls of national legislation. Every right thinking person should join heartily in the movement.—Advocate.

A Handsome Premium Free.

The Christian Herald (a weekly visitor to many people in this locality) is this year giving free to every new and renewing subscriber a most attractive gift, which is very appropriately called "The Art Gallery De Luxe." It consists of six famous paintings, superbly reproduced in 14 colors, aggregating 1,000 square inches. The artist catches the glint of the sunbeams through orchard trees and makes them dance and gleam on canvas. But how can we paint in mere words the beauty of these six exquisite pictures? A handsome premium was never offered by any magazine.

Probably no comment is necessary concerning The Christian Herald, "The Magazine that Fully Satisfies," as only the best in literature and art is presented and every one of its 52 issues, the whole year around, sparkles with gems from cover to cover. The Christian Herald contains 1,200 large pages and 1,000 illustrations yearly—as much as any four 11 magazines.

The subscription price is $1.50 per year, but every new subscriber who sends $1.50 to The Christian Herald, 444 Bible House, New York, will receive The Christian Herald every week from date of order until January 1, 1910, and in addition the incomparable "Art Gallery De Luxe" free.

You must act quickly, as this splendid offer expires December 10, 1908.
